OPERATIONS

- All-staff meeting scheduled for Monday March 8, 2021
- Met with Margaret Law in follow-up to organizational review. Next Steps are actively being developed to address the recommendations of that review
- Our first summer student of the season, Cari Graus, officially started on Monday, March 1st
- We have begun investigating a new ticketing software system with the intent of improving communication with our libraries

LIBRARIES

- The province has wisely moved libraries into step 2 to of the re-opening phase. Libraries may now open at 15% capacity. Many of our libraries have already opened and many will follow.
- My one-on-one meetings with library managers begin in earnest next week
- Our newest public services consultant, Michelle Terriss, was out to Morinville this week with the 3D printer. It is exciting to be able to bring these technologies to our libraries

I am currently reading: Leaders eat last : why some teams pull together and others don't by Simon Sinek on loan from the Bonnyville Municipal Library.
