- The Service Catalog was sent to the printer this week. I am excited to get this first edition in our hands. The electronic version will be kept up-to-date and QR codes in the print version will direct readers to any changes.
- I took some time this week to delve into the history of NLLS. We have a file room in need of some serious organizing. We also have a storied history full of the hard work and dedication of thousands of people.
- We have chosen a third-party payroll service for NLLS headquarters, ADP. This will rollout for us in December.
- NLLS headquarters will transition to a new Health Benefits provider on Nov. 1st. This was a several months-long investigation that involved staff at every step of the process. NLLS staff will enjoy all their previous benefits with the addition of several new benefits at no additional cost to the organization. A big thanks to Terri Hampson for leading that initiative.

LIBRARIES

- We showed up enmasse (Vicky online, Me, Jessie M. and Tim K. in person) to Vermilion Library's AGM on Wednesday night. We celebrated 30 years of partnership with NLLS. They are doing amazing things there and we are happy to be support.
- In case you missed it last week, see our spreadsheet of all our library's anniversary dates.
- Michelle provided a great webinar this week, with 18 libraries in attendance, on tips for using Office 365 and Microsoft Teams.
